"Washing Away" is a documentary shown across the country and in Germany on Aug. 29, the second anniversary of Hurricane Katrina. It was made with the intention of showing people that our wetlands and environment need to be protected.

I went to the showing at Belle Chasse Auditorium. Parish President Billy Nungesser and former President Benny Rouselle spoke about the disappearance of our wetlands, the endangerment of wildlife and the breakdown of the barrier islands as well as our responsibility to care for these things so our children and grandchildren can enjoy them. Katie Brasted, director of Woodlands Trail and Bird Sanctuary, was the moderator. She and Tulane University did a wonderful job in putting the program together.
